

Günther Uecker: Sculpture "Untitled (Cushion + Book) - Dark" (1969/2021), bronze

Product no.: IN-938815

During a trip to Bhutan in 1968, Uecker encountered the ritual of the monks there placing their prayer books under their pillows. This inspired him a year later to create a sculpture that combines these elements, but - typical for Uecker - adds a nail.

This quote by the artist is explanatory: "To make the course of a movement visible, as a state of aliveness in which the human being participates in creative repetition, in monotony, is indeed an exciting activity that can be experienced spiritually like a prayer."

The bronze presented here was created after the unique piece from 1969 and was published in a small edition of 19 copies.

Sculpture in bronze, 1969/2021. Edition: 19 copies numbered with Arabic numerals (offered here) + 6 copies numbered in Roman numerals, signed and dated by hand. Height: 48 cm. Width: 16.5 cm. Depth: 14.5 cm.
