Nature with all its phenomena is an overriding element in the oeuvre of the painter, graphic artist and sculptor Heinz Mack. Mack created the edition presented here, "Forms of Growing", in 1992. It can be interpreted as an ode to the constantly growing fauna. A leaf rises in the centre, flanked by a fir branch and a flower stem.

This composition served as a model for an installation by the artist in Grevenbroich. The sculpture of the same name made of bronzed aluminium has stood in front of the city's Ständehaus since 1993.

Embossed print on handmade paper, 1992. Edition: 60 copies. Signed and with dedication. Motif size 30 x 32 cm. Sheet size 78 x 56 cm. Size in frame 84 x 63 cm as shown.
